Regarding original existence of the Village As regards previous circumstances and situation of the village; Article I ; Basis of acquiring ownership rights from the beginning. Original partition of land, Time and date, and cause of partition of land is not known. when the ownership was acquired was is not known. As had been revealed by the venerable ancestor it has informed that Rajpal Gotra Sumal, from Pooth kalan, Pargana Delhi. Their family tree/pedigree at the time is not known. Due to reprimand the some one emperor had eliminated the entire family. Rajpal because he was just a child at relevant time was left alive. When he become youth, fortunately he got employment of emperor. While serving the state works the emperor was very much impressed from him and appreciated his services. Even the employees of emperor employed in Darbar of Emperor used to abide his orders and instructions. At the time of collecting lagan/ revenue tax by the emperor Rajpal also had prayed for allotment of Biswadari in village Pooth Kalan. On his such mercy plea the Emperor had asked him to develop a village on land lying vacant. Rajpal on liking the land, developed the vacant lying land made the same his own property. remained undivided. On death of fateh Singh, his legal heirs and successors namely Rattan Singh, Jas Karan, Shyam Singh, Har Chand, Nar Pal, Kanshi Ram and Sahi Ram developed four Patti, namely north, South, East and West from 20 Biswas { total land of village } and divided the same into 5 biswas each patti. they gave as donation the land towards South to Ram Lal Priest, Caste Brahmin for rest of soul of their father Fateh Singh in peace. Balance three pattis of 15 Biswa i.e. East and North were partitioned in the following manner, instead of partitioning the ancestral share by the consent all parties and bonds; Patti towards North measuring 5 biswas, the 1/4th of entire land of village was shared in the following manner; 1 Biswa vested to Rattan Singh 1 Biswa Vested to sister, Ram Kanwar 15 Biswansis vested to Jas Karan 15 Biswansis vested to Shyam Singh 15 Biswansis vested to Har Chand 15 Biswansis vested to Har Dayal Patti towards East measuring 5 biswas, the 1/4th of entire land of village was shared to Kanshi Ram exclusively. Patti towards West measuring 5 biswas, the 1/4th of entire land of village was shared to Mr. Sahi Ram exclusively. All the four patti each measuring 5 biswas are known, distinguished and recognized as Paschanli { Western side } 5 Biswas Purvadi { Eastern side } 5 Biswas Dakhnadi { Southern side } 5 Biswas Utradi { Northern side } 5 Biswas After lapse of time now Patti Purvadi is familiar in the name of Paposhian and the same is now distinguished and usually recognized as patti Paposhian. Patti Dakhnadi after aforesaid partition, which was gifted to Priest Ram Lal, Pandit Ram Lal had died issue-less. His wife Maha Kaur had sold her share measuring 5 Biswas to Jas Karan, Shyam Singh, Harchand and Nar Pal sons of Fateh Singh with all her rights, for a total sale consideration of Rs. 5,000/- { Rs. Five thousand } Ever since purchase of said land in patti Dakhandi, Jas karan etc. are owners in possession of both Patti-tis known as Utradi and Dakhandi, each measuring 5 biswas in equal share. their generation to generations are owners in possession of said two patti and land Out of patti Paschanli measuring 5 biswas vested to Sahi Ram, land measuring 2 1/2 was donated by Sahi Ram to Rahman Khan, caste Pathan by considering him as his brother. Sahi Ram use to keep and maintain Rahman Khan with him. Ever since then caste Pathan is owner in possession of land measuring 2 1/2 Biswas of Patti Paschanli. Ever since land measuring 2 1/2 Biswas of Patti Paschanli generation to generation of Rahman Khan are owners of said land In the independence Revolution of 1857 Jahangir Khan, Nahar Khan, Mast Khan sons of yaar Khan, Haji Khan, Hasan Khan sons of Shadi Khan Najabat Khan son of Man Khan were hanged till death. Their land measuring 16 Biswasi and 15 Kachwansi were sold in auction. Same was purchased in auction by Hari Singh and Phool Singh residents of Village. Now legal heirs and successors of said purchasers are owners in possession of said lands measuring 16 Biswansi and 15 Kachwansi. Ever since partition of said land, aforesaid patti each measuring 5 Biswas are known, distinguished and familiar in their respective aforesaid names Subject to aforesaid facts and circumstances, except land falls in Patti Paschanli, We the legal heirs, successors caste Rajput, Gorta Sumal are owners in possession of our respective shares in all and each of aforesaid four patti. In the Collective of each patti the respective share of each one against his respective name is written in elaborate details There is population/abadi in land measuring 27 Bighas 18 Biswas belongs to common land of village. Originally all the biswadars (share holders) of village were owners of said land as per their respective pattis. they are still owners of their respective share in said land. As such patti dari (separate share in ajoin in village) of this village is not fully complete. Article II; Process and basis for naming the village As detailed above, Mr. Rajpal, caste Rajput had acquired said land and developed the same made the same cultivable. As per information gathered, Rajpal, Rajput was prosperous, and led their lives like as a Royal and used to maintain Rath. As such they were known distinguished as Rath wala. Their ancestral also used to like and appreciate their name as 'Rath Wala' With the passage of time the inhabitants of said village used to say and recognize said village as 'Rithal' as such the same is now known, recognised, familiar and distinguished in the name of 'Rithal' Accordingly in the revenue records also name 'Rithal' of this village has been written. Ever since existence of said village, same has not become a idle and un-useful, village. There is no Archeological property available in this village Article III ; Process of lagan/ land Revenue of village till date The Government at the time of development of lagan/ land Revenue, assessed the lagan/ land revenue in a illegal and arbitrary manner, without any basis or maneuver. However, at the time legal Settlement in 1833 u/s 9 Ram Saran Dass the then Deputy Collector assessed lagan / land revenue to the tune of Rs4, 415/- {Rs four thousand four hundred fifteen} per annum of entire village. We the owners of our respective land used to pay the same as per our respective share. During independent revolution 1857, all the documents concerned legal settlement of lagan / Land Revenue of village were destroyed / vanished. Amendments in the settlement of this village were made. Because of substantial share of land was found as 'Shore' land in this village as such a concession of Rs. 609/- {Rupees six hundred nine} was given in the lagan / land Revenue of said village and reduced the land revenue @ 3,806/- {Rupees, three thousand eight hundred and six}. We the owners of our respective land are paying to th Government as per our respective share through Numerdar.	1 5 Biswas both share of village land 1162 Bighas 6 Biswas 725-90 2 863 Bighas - 11 Biswas 514-8-9 5 Biswas both share of village land 3 5 Biswas both share of village land 699 Bighas 5 Biswas 42513-9 4 1686 Bighas 18 Kachwansis 202-10 133-0 5 3 Biswas 15 Biswansis 898-18 1193-21-8 2912-12 6 3 Biswas 15 Biswansis 898-18 626-67 7 5 Biswas - 20 Biswas 1193-21-8 2912-12 833-4-9 290-	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 Total area land of Patti Paschanli Common land of village Total area land of Patti Paschanli	Rajput Gotra Sumal
